

Marwood Hallett

Bio

Born: 1949, Vinita, OK

Married: Cindy Hallett

One daughter

Five Grandchildren

Retired: 2011

Education:

Highest earned degree, Doctorate (D.Min.) UTS, Dayton, Ohio. Emphasis, Peer Supervision. Particularly Organizational Supervision

Career Emphasis:

35 years, Director of Personnel and Leadership Development

Agricultural Connections:

Ranching, 500 Acres.

Began with two Hereford heifers given by an uncle at age 12.

Bought first Red Polled bull when 16.

Commercial herd of black baldie cattle in OH for 12 years.

Breeding herd of registered Straight Egyptian Arabian horses for the past 20 years.

Pureblood herd of registered Murray Grey cattle currently.

Douglas County Livestock Association member. Coordinate guest speakers for monthly Stockmen's breakfasts.

Public Sector Service:

Asked by state of Ohio to help organize and lead a statewide VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disasters). Served 9 years as Secretary, 10 years as President.

Secretary, Knox county Ohio Cattlemen's association, 10 years

Board member Ohio Cattlemen's Association two terms.

Represented Ohio Cattlemen's Association at the NCBA Annual Meeting, twice