

Tom Kress

Commissioner Kress is proud to be a third generation Douglas County resident. After graduating from Roseburg High School, he went on to earn his Bachelor of Science in Business, with an emphasis in Accounting, from the University of Oregon. He chose to return to Douglas County after college to work and raise his family. Commissioner Kress has been the owner of Waldron's Outdoor Sports for 20 years, and has been a small business owner in Roseburg for over 32 years. He and his wife, Sasha have been married for 40 years and raised three children in the process. Fun Fact: Commissioner Kress and his wife were married by then County Clerk, Doris Wadsworth, who would later move on to serve as a Douglas County Commissioner (1987-1994).
